

PETITIONER/PLAINTIFF: RESPONDENT/DEFENDANT: OTHER PARENT/PARTY:	CASE NUMBER:
---	--------------

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF EL DORADO
Waiver of Right to Spousal Support

To be incorporated into final judgment:

1. Both Parties agree that each is self-supporting and does not require Spousal Support from the other to maintain the standard of living enjoyed during the marriage.
2. Effective upon entry of judgment, Petitioner and Respondent waive all right or claim which each may have to receive Spousal Support from the other.
3. Effective upon entry of judgment, the Court's jurisdiction to award Spousal Support to either party shall be irrevocably terminated. No court shall have jurisdiction over the subject of Spousal Support regardless of what circumstance may arise in the future.
4. The parties agree that they are informed and aware that, if requested by either party, the court is required by law to reserve Spousal Support for long-term marriages of over ten years and may be disposed to do so for marriages shorter than ten years.
5. Even so, as shown by their signatures below, each party waives the right to receive Spousal Support now or at any time in the future.
6. This waiver is being entered into freely and voluntarily and without coercion or duress.
7. Each party has had adequate opportunity to consider this waiver, including the opportunity to consult with an attorney concerning this waiver.

Date: _____ Petitioner: _____
(Signature of Petitioner)

Date: _____ Respondent: _____
(Signature of Respondent)