To date, the court has still not received any documentation from the Shasta County Superior Court.

The minor's father executed and signed paragraph 4 to the Judicial Council form GC-211, consenting to petitioner being appointed guardian and waiving further notice. Good cause appearing, the court finds that service of the notice of hearing and a copy of the petition on the mother should be dispensed with because she cannot with reasonable diligence be given notice. (Prob. Code, § 1511, subd. (g); Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 7.52.)

The minor's grandparents were served by mail with the notice of hearing and a copy of the petition on January 22, 2024.
