ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER RE: REASSIGNING WEST SLOPE JUVENILE DELINQUENCY CASES TO DEPARTMENT 8

Effective June 15, 2020, all West Slope delinquency filings, pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 602, et seq., shall automatically be assigned upon filing to Department 8 for all purposes. All West Slope delinquency cases previously assigned to Department 4 are hereby reassigned to Department 8. This assignment shall apply to all pretrial matters and trial, excepting only initial detention hearings, which shall be heard in Department 4. The court shall make reasonable efforts to assign West Slope delinquency cases to a specific visiting judge to provide consistency in the judicial officer before whom the juvenile appears.

Except as may be necessary for contested matters, all delinquency hearings in Department 8 for youth detained at the Juvenile Treatment Center in South Lake Tahoe may be conducted by remote appearance via Zoom videoconference for the convenience and safety of detained youth, probation, parents, and counsel.

This order modifies subsection C of Local Rule 2.00.10 (Judicial Assignments: Placerville Session) and modifies the Administrative Order Modifying Assignment of West Slope Juvenile Delinquency Cases dated May 27, 2020, and shall remain in effect until the Governor of the State of California appoints a judicial officer to fill the current judicial vacancy and the Presiding Judge assigns a judicial officer to Department 8.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: JUNE 9, 2020
