6. MATTER OF SHANNAN STEVENS SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST, 21PR0055*Petition for Trust Supervision to Compel Accounting

This matter was continued from December 15, 2021.

On November 30, 2021, Shannan Stevens filed a petition for trust supervision to compel accounting and to determine trust termination. (Prob. Code § 17200.) The petition alleges that the Shannan R. Stevens Special Needs Trust was formed by a Trust Agreement made by Lissa Stevens on July 26, 2019. (Pet., Ex. 1.) Stevens was the original Trustee. The sole lifetime beneficiary is petitioner, and the remainder beneficiaries of the Trust are a reversion to Settlor if she survives, otherwise to petitioner's descendants.

Petitioner is not challenging the terms of the Trust. Rather, petitioner is informed and believes that Stevens emptied and closed the bank account for this Trust, has otherwise removed all assets from this Trust, and has ceased to act as Trustee, resulting in abandonment and de facto termination. The alternate successor trustees named in the Trust have declined to act.

Furthermore, Stevens has never made an accounting of the Trust to the beneficiary/petitioner as required by Probate Code § 16062. The petition also alleges there is a significant conflict between petitioner and Stevens, as seen in the DVRO petition filed by petitioner for protection from Stevens. Although the case was closed by abandonment of the petition, petitioner alleges that the conflict remains.

On December 28, 2021, Stevens was served by mail at an address in Reno, Nevada, with an updated notice of hearing and a copy of the petition.
